

Friday September 28, 2018
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
at Spellmann Center, Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room,
Lindenwood University
Midwest Human Trafficking Conference - Agenda

8:00 am to 8:45 am Registration

8:45 am to 9:00 am Welcoming

9:00 am to 9:30 am Opening
Timothy Lohmar – St. Charles Prosecuting Attorney

Howard J. Marcus - Supervisory Assistant U.S. Attorney,
National Security/Child Exploitation Section

9:30 am to 10:00 am Sgt Adam Kavanaugh - St. Louis County Police, Special Investigations Unit, Deputy Commander Mo. Internet Crimes
Against Children Task Force

Sergeant Jatonya Clayborn-Muldrow – Intelligence Division,
St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department

10:00 am to 11:30 am What is HT and how Technology is being used in recruitment

TC Cassidy - Director of Organizational Advancement,
National Safe Place Network

- Gain basic understanding and knowledge of sex and labor trafficking: definition and identification red flags and indicators.
- Understand the prevalence and pervasiveness of human trafficking in the St Louis Metropolitan area, specifically as it relates to minor victims, and types of exploitation.
- Identify vulnerabilities that traffickers exploit to recruit and traffic persons, and the role and impact technology has on this process, including manipulative strategies

11:30 am to 12:15 pm lunch and network

Friday September 28, 2018
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
at Spellmann Center, Anheuser-Busch Leadership Room,
Lindenwood University
Midwest Human Trafficking Conference - Agenda

12:15 pm to 12:30 pm Emily Russell - Executive Director, Human Trafficking Task Force, Missouri Attorney General's Office

With the goal of building a framework for response to human trafficking that had not existed at the state level previously, the Human Trafficking Task Force was formed by Missouri Attorney General Josh Hawley in the Spring of 2017. The Task Force focuses on identifying and strengthening existing efforts as well as recognizing gaps in service provision, investigations and prosecutions, and overall reform.

12:30 pm to 1:45 pm Now what...

Debi Grebenik- Chief Learning Officer of Alia

Alia: innovations for people and systems impacted by childhood trauma

- Understand the neurobiological impact of trauma within relational development and growth, and ability to function in different social environments.
- Identify strategies and tools to successfully serve victims of trafficking.
- Understand trauma-informed and victim-centered approaches for working with youth victims of human trafficking across multiple environments.

1:45 pm to 2:00 pm Break

2:00 pm to 2:30 pm Elizabeth Dallam

Policy Analyst, Family Immigration & Victim Protection Division
Office of Policy and Strategy (OPS), U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS), Department of Homeland Security (DHS)

2:30 pm to 4:00 pm Panel discussions

- Jennifer A. Winfield, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Civil Rights Coordinator, U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Missouri
Discussing a Federal Labor Trafficking case
- Teresa A. Moore, Assistant United States Attorney, Chief Computer Crimes and Child Exploitation Unit
Discussing a Federal Sex Trafficking case
- Jillian S. Anderson, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Chief Attorney for Policy & Development, Chief Attorney for the Special Victims Unit St. Charles County Office of the Prosecuting Attorney
Discussing a State Sex Trafficking case

